

wildlife Wednesdays

2014–2015 Free Lecture Series At The Alaska Zoo

March 11 at 7pm

Tundra to Tropics:

Travels of the Bristle-Thighed Curlew

Learn about Alaska's rare shorebird and its connection to national wildlife refuges in Hawaii and the Pacific.

Kristine Sowl, a wildlife biologist with the Yukon Delta National Wildlife Refuge, takes you on a journey to its remote western Alaska breeding grounds and winter home on the islands and atolls of the Pacific.

Photos courtesy of: Kristine Sowl & Jacob Jung

Lectures will be held on the second Wednesday, October through April. All lectures will begin at 7pm in the Alaska Zoo's Gateway Education Building. The doors will open at 6pm, coffee and tea will be available during lectures.

